Coronavirus Employer Support Pack

You are concerned about cashflow and looking at your payroll. You are asking:

- should you make staff redundant?
- how does 'furloughing' work?
- can you reduce pay or introduce short time working?
- should you just send all your employees home?
- how can you best preserve your workforce for the post-coronavirus era?

Tozers employment law specialists have put together an essential toolkit to help you decide your strategy and manage your employees through an inevitable period of reduced work.

The government's position on employees, work and pay is changing daily and it is very hard to keep up. Let us help you with Tozers' Coronavirus Employer Support Pack. For a fixed fee of £975 plus VAT you will receive:

1. Guidance notes on the various solutions;
2. Regular and clear email updates as changes are announced;
3. A suite of documents, including contracts and letters to employees/employee representatives (where applicable);
4. FAQs sheet with worked examples;
5. Clear, straightforward advice tailored to your business either by phone or Skype video link or by email.
